Startel Announces New Director of Healthcare Division

Irvine, CA – May 18, 2015 – Startel Corporation, a leading provider of unified business communications for contact centers and telephone answering services, announced today that it has expanded its healthcare team with the addition of Maribeth Darras as director of healthcare systems.

Darras brings more than 20 years' experience in healthcare consulting and sales. This appointment marks her return to Startel, where she worked previously for over 10 years to establish the company as one of the leading providers of call center solutions to healthcare. In her new role, Darras is responsible for the company's healthcare division, including ensuring product requirements continue to meet the demands of today's healthcare systems. Most recently, Darras served as a consultant for business development and process management.

"I'm pleased to welcome Maribeth back to Startel and our healthcare team," said Bill Lane, president and CEO of Startel. "Maribeth brings a wealth of experience to this position and will be a great asset to the company. We look forward to leveraging her knowledge to support our healthcare objectives."

"I am very excited to return to Startel," said Darras. "Our healthcare offering is comprehensive and robust, and includes all of the functionality that a healthcare system needs to manage their call centers. We also have a strong team that is passionate about helping our clients operate more efficiently and I look forward to working with them in my new position as we continue to add value to the healthcare market."

Darras was previously with Startel from 1992 to 2002 as director of sales and marketing for healthcare systems. She holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in business administration from the University of Houston.
